

NDIS Webinar: What to expect during a verification audit

Thursday 21 November 2019

Welcome

Tegan Kissane

QIP Manager, Northern Territory
Accreditation Services

The left side of the slide features several overlapping circular and semi-circular patterns in vibrant colors including purple, blue, yellow, green, and orange. These patterns consist of concentric circles, dots, and wavy lines, characteristic of traditional Aboriginal art.

Acknowledgement

We acknowledge the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as the Traditional Owners of these lands.

We wish to pay respect to their Elders – past, present and emerging – and acknowledge the important role Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people continue to play within our communities.

About QIP

- QIP's fees are affordable and transparent
- We don't surprise you with any extra fees

TIP

Quotes from more than one quality auditor?

Scrutinise them carefully to compare like for like – different auditors use different methods to calculate and present their pricing or charge out administrative and/or other support in increments

The value of NDIS Registration

The value of NDIS registration

- Assurance that you are:
 - operating according to the high standards set by the NDIS Commission
 - providing safe, high-quality services to NDIS participants
 - continuous quality improvement
- Valuable asset in the context of the Royal Commission into Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of People with Disability now underway
- Relatively affordable

The value of NDIS registration

- Not overly difficult (desktop audit)
- Once in place, it's fairly simple
- NDIS needs a diverse pool of verified registered providers to deliver high-quality supports to people with disability
- Connect to all NDIS participants regardless type of plan
 - NDIA-managed
 - Plan Managed or
 - Self-managed by the participant

The value of NDIS registration

- Market your services as an NDIS-registered provider
- Extend online presence through the online NDIS Provider Finder tool
- Access online resources to
 - train your staff
 - create business processes and systems (including manage your service bookings and fast payment processing)
- Receive updates from the NDIS Commission about important changes to processes and systems

NDIS registration process

NDIS registration process

Helps NDIS Commission determine your suitability to operate in the NDIS market

- Steps:
 1. Provide your information and self-assessment against the NDIS Practice Standards
 2. Obtain a third-party verification audit from and Approved Quality Auditor – that's us, QIP
 3. We verify your self-assessment via a desktop review and can ask for clarification or further information if needed

NDIS Verification Audit

Verification audit

QIP checks and confirms that you are suitably qualified and you understand and implement systems that ensure:

- The rights and responsibilities of people with disability
- Human resource management to hire and utilise the right staff for the work you undertake
- Good governance with a focus on incident management and complaints management

Verification audit

- Based on the information you provided when completing your 'self-assessment'
- Three types of requirements
 1. General requirements – applies to all providers
 2. Worker screening – applies to specific personnel
 3. Additional requirements – based on profession

Quality
Innovation
Performance

1. General requirements

To comply and maintain your registration, all providers must show evidence of:

- Human Resource Management
- Incident Management
- Complaints Management
- Risk Management

Check the Standards!

Proportionate to the risk and complexity of your services and the size and scale of your organisation – pages 43 and 44 of the NDIS Practice Standards and Quality Indicators

HINT

Human resource management

NDIS Practice Standards intended outcome:

“Each participant’s support needs are met by workers who are competent in relation to their role, hold relevant qualifications, and who have relevant expertise and experience to provide person-centred support.”

Human resource management

NDIS Practice Standards Indicator

Records of worker identity, right to work, pre-employment checks, qualifications and/or experience are maintained.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Human resource management policy includes processes for managing worker identification, right to work, pre-employment checks, qualifications and/or experience
- Evidence of worker screening for each individual
- Proof of identification (100 points) for each individual
- Proof of right to work in Australia for each individual
- Qualification and experience for each individual
- Additional requirements depending on profession (refer to Section 3 of the NDIS Verification Module – Required Documentation)

Human resource management

NDIS Practice Standards Indicator

Workers complete mandatory NDIS orientation module and records of continuing professional development are maintained.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Verification of completion, NDIS Worker Orientation Program for each individual

Incident management

NDIS Practice Standards intended outcome:

“Each participant is safeguarded by the provider’s incident management system, ensuring that incidents are acknowledged, respond to, well-managed and learned from.”

Incident management

NDIS Practice Standards Indicator

An incident management system is maintained that is relevant and proportionate to the scope and complexity of supports delivered and the size and scale of the organisation. The system complies with the requirements under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Incident Management and Reportable Incidents) Rules 2018.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Policy – incident management that complies with the requirements under the NDIS Incident Management and Reportable Incidents Rules 2018
- Incident system/register which has as a minimum ...
- Incident forms
- Employment records shows employees have been trained in the incident management system

Complaints management

NDIS Practice Standards intended outcome:

“Each participant has knowledge of and access to the provider’s complaints management and resolution system. Complaints made by all parties are welcomed, acknowledged, respected and well-managed.”

Complaints management

A complaints management and resolution system is maintained that is relevant and proportionate to the scope and complexity of supports delivered and the size and scale of the organisation. The system follows principles of procedural fairness and natural justice and complies with the requirements under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Complaints Management and Resolution) Rules 2018.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Complaint information is readily accessible by the public
- Policy – complaints management process that complies
- Complaints Form used to document complaints
- Records show employees have been trained in complaints management system
- Feedback and Complaints Register

Risk management

NDIS Practice Standards intended outcome:

“Risk to participant, workers and the provider are identified and managed.”

Risk management

NDIS Practice Standards Indicator

A documented system that effectively manages work health and safety risks is in place, and is relevant and proportionate to the size and scale of the provider and the scope and complexity of supports.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Work health and safety policies and procedures relevant to the supports delivered – policies should be proportionate to the size and scale of the provider and the scope and complexity of the supports being delivered

Risk management

NDIS Practice Standards Indicator

Appropriate insurance is in place, including professional indemnity, public liability and accident insurance.

Examples of documentary evidence required

- Certificate of currency for:
 - current public liability insurance that meets the minimum level of cover commensurate to the scope of the provider
 - current personal accident insurance or worker's compensation insurance (where relevant)
 - current insurance that meets the minimum level of cover commensurate to the scope of the provider

2. Worker screening

To guarantee that you or people in your organisation who deliver specified NDIS supports or services, or who have more than incidental contact with people with disability, do not pose an unacceptable risk to the safety and wellbeing of NDIS participants:

- Ensure that specific workers are appropriately checked

Check the Standards!

HINT

Worker screening

Who needs to be screened?

- Key personnel – people who hold key executive, management or operational positions in an organisation such as:
 - directors
 - managers
 - board members
 - chief executive officer or
 - chairperson
- ‘More than incidental contact’ with NDIS participants
- Roles that directly deliver specified supports or services – listed at: www.ndiscommission.gov.au/document/891

Worker screening

- You are expected to also promote a culture that
 - does not tolerate abuse, neglect, exploitation
 - focuses on continuous upskilling, education, training for workers

NDIS Code of Conduct

The NDIS Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct promotes safe and ethical service delivery and applies to ALL disability service providers – registered and unregistered – and all persons employed or otherwise engaged by an NDIS provider.

It requires workers and providers delivering NDIS supports to:

- Act with respect for individual rights to freedom of expression, self-determination, and decision-making in accordance with relevant laws and conventions
- Provide supports and services in a safe and competent manner with care and skill
- Respect the privacy of people with disability
- Act with integrity, honesty, and transparency

The NDIS Code of Conduct

It requires workers and providers delivering NDIS supports to:

- Promptly take steps to raise and act on concerns about matters that might have an impact on the quality and safety of supports provided to people with disability
- Take all reasonable steps to prevent and respond to all forms of violence, exploitation, neglect, and abuse of people with disability
- Take all reasonable steps to prevent and respond to sexual misconduct
- Registered NDIS providers must also actively promote a culture that does not tolerate abuse, neglect or exploitation, and focuses on continuous upskilling, education and training for workers

QIP's NDIS Verification Process Overview

The QIP verification audit process

STEP 1

Registration or re-registration with the NDIS Commission

- Select your registration groups
(do not overstate; only choose what you actually do as you will be audited on your registration groups)
- Complete your self-assessment and receive scope of audit

Contact QIP

Contact QIP via the NDIS Commission portal or 📞 1300 888 329 ✉️ ndis@qip.com.au requesting quote for the 'Verification Summer Special'

The QIP verification audit process

STEP
3

Accept QIP quote and commence verification process

- Accept QIP's quote and work with your QIP Client Liaison Officer to schedule your verification audit
- Your QIP qualified and sector-experienced auditor will undertake a comprehensive desktop review of your self-assessment (that is, electronically – we do not need to do a site visit; we review and verify your self-assessment documentation)
- The auditor will ask you to provide any additional required information or documentation

The QIP verification audit process

STEP 4

Reporting

- Once the audit is complete, a draft report of QIP's findings will be provided to you and you have the opportunity to address any areas of non-conformity before the final report is submitted to the NDIS Commission
- QIP submits the final report to the NDIS Commission with a recommendation for verification
- The final decision to award you verification and therefore continue your NDIS registration is the NDIS Commission's responsibility

The QIP verification audit process

STEP 5 Verification

Once awarded NDIS registration, you will:

- receive a certificate of registration from the NDIS Commission outlining your registered services, registration period and conditions
- be listed on the NDIS provider register and participants of all types can now access your services
- enter your ‘quality improvement cycle’ until you are required to undergo a re-verification audit
